

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... Joshua 1:8 NASB

* One takes offense against an injustice done to them because they "harbour" some of the same sin within themselves. One is offended when faced with righteousness because they have "maintained" unrighteousness in some form. One who is filled with righteousness is never offended by injustice since they are ever aware of its source (Satan). When they are faced with righteousness they are never offended rather they rejoice to receive "direction" from God in that moment.

It matters not whether you are treated "fairly" by others. It does matter how you treat others and how you see the actions of others against you.

...."Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm".... Ephesians 6:11-13 NASB

...."Therefore you have no excuse or defense or justification, O man, whoever you are who judges and condemns another. For in posing as judge and passing sentence on another, you condemn yourself, because you who judge are habitually practicing the very same things [that you censure and denounce]".... Romans 2:1 The Amplified Translation
