

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... Joshua 1:8 NASB

* Jesus evidently walked in the light of His confession. He was what He confessed.

It is strange we never knew until recently that faith follows in the footprints of our confession.

Our confession builds the road over which faith hauls its mighty cargo.

You are going to learn that you never rise above your confession.

You will never enjoy the riches of grace until you confess them.

You are going to find that your confession of what He is, what He has done for you, and what you are in Him always precedes His revelation of Himself.

Salvation follows confession. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus" (Romans 10:9).

And the same is true in receiving the Holy Spirit.

Our healing follows our confession.

Some people have to "hold fast to their confession" in the face of apparent defeat. They refuse to give in to sense evidences.

You are going to learn the danger of a dual confession—confessing one moment the absolute integrity of the Word but the next moment confessing that He has not made it good in your case.

Your confession is the thing that challenges the world. It is the thing that causes them to venture in the faith life.

Christianity is the Great Confession. It heads up in Jesus in His confession, and next in us in our bold declaration of the utter truthfulness of the living Word.
