

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... MIRACLES

[Part 2 of 4]

Christianity is a Miracle

God is a miracle worker. Jesus Christ was a miracle, and is a miracle. The Bible is a miracle Book. If we take the supernatural out of Christianity, we have a religion. Miracles are not out of harmony with the desire of humanity. A miracle worker, either real or false, will draw a greater congregation than the greatest philosopher or statesman in the world.

This love of the miraculous is not a mark of ignorance but rather an outreaching after the unseen God. Education does not eliminate the desire for the miraculous in man. That desire is intensified, as education unveils man's impotence in the presence of the laws of nature and shows him his utter dependence upon the unseen.

It is not a mark of great scholarship, piety, or mental acumen to deny the miraculous.
