

REFLECTIONS OF THE FATHER'S HEART

[Exhortations From The Father]

[December 29th]

* A great part of walking in love towards one another is a "holy" tolerance of the words and actions of others. Not a tolerance of things which are clearly apart from Me but, rather, a waiting upon Me to discern whether the word or action is of Me.

Too many of My children are quick to "judge" unrighteously, and thus they become vessels of Satan - in a "spirit of condemnation and accusation". My servants must be slow to speak until they are enlightened in the way that is necessary for them to be a vessel of "blessing" to their brothers and sisters in Christ - whether that be to set themselves in agreement with what has been said or done, or to pray until that one is led into the knowledge of the truth, in a "spirit of true repentance".

*.... "Be honest in your judgment and do not decide at a glance [superficially and by appearances]; but judge [discern] fairly and righteously" .... John 7:24
The Amplified Translation*
