

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

....*"This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... THE POWER OF YOUR WORDS

[part 2 of 2]

* As Paul stood on the deck of that ship in the midst of the awful storm, he said, "I believe God." Then he told those wondering men, "Every one of you will get to the shore safely, but the ship will be lost." (See Acts 27:22.) He said, "Come, let us break our fast." (See verses 33–36.) He broke bread and gave thanks in the midst of them. He gave them more than bread; he gave them courage. Paul had a faith-filled, joyous confession. Only a heart that is nourished on the Word can stand in these hard places.

When we know that the Word is God speaking to us now, it is not difficult to act upon it. In Psalm 119:89 we read that the "word is settled in heaven." When I read that, I saw that it must be settled in my heart. I would no longer try to settle it. I knew that no Word from God was void of fulfillment. I was no longer afraid to act upon it.

The Word became more real to me than any word man had ever spoken. My lips were filled with laughter, my heart was filled with joy, and I had a victorious confession.

How many times I have seen the hesitant confession a forerunner of failure, and the joyful confession a forerunner of victory. When we fearlessly act upon the Word and joyfully cast our every care on Him, victory is as sure as the rising of the sun.
