

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

....*"This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... WORDS THAT WORK WONDERS

* If only we would realize the power in our words, how different our lives would be. It has been said that "the pen is mightier than the sword." How much mightier are the words of our pen and of our mouth when our words are the Word of God. "Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of God" (Psalm 50:23).

Some words that can work wonders are:

Words of Praise.

"I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth" (Psalm 34:1). Resolve to be a bold "praiser" from now on. As a "praiser," extol the Lord not so much for His gifts which you receive but to magnify the wonderful Giver Himself.

Words of Edification and Grace.

Resolve to "ordereth his conversation aright" (Psalm 50:23), that "no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers" (Ephesians 4:29).

Words of Bold Authority Overcoming Satan's Power.

"They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony" (Revelation 12:11).

Words of Confession of God's Word.

Confession always precedes possession. The word “confession” means “to say the same thing.” Dare to say exactly what God says in His Word. Agree with God by speaking His Word in all circumstances.

When we “ordereth [our] conversation[s] aright,” God manifests the benefits of His great salvation. “With the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Romans 10:10). And remember that, when we make confession unto salvation, it includes healing, deliverance, and every spiritual and physical blessing provided for us in Christ’s atonement.

As confession always precedes possession, so a wrong confession, or a negative confession, precedes the possession of wrong things. Your tongue, used wrongly, can cause you much trouble. “Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles” (Proverbs 21:23).

“Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth” (Proverbs 6:2).

Refuse to have a wrong confession.

Remember that your words can work wonders. Therefore, speak words of praise, words of singing, words of faith in God’s Word, words of bold authority expelling Satan’s power. Truly, words are the “coin of the kingdom,” and you can boldly speak words that will work wonders for you!
