

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

....*"This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... THE VALUE OF CONFESSION

[part 5 of 13]

* “No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord” (Isaiah 54:17).

God is under obligation to stand by and care for His own. He cannot fail us.

“The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?” (Psalm 118:6).

“Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Isaiah 41:10).

This is God’s challenge, and I dare confess it before the world.

What a confession it makes!

God says to me personally: “Don’t be afraid, child; I am with thee. Be not dismayed; I am your God.”

He was Israel’s God. Do you remember what happened to Pharaoh and Egypt, and the Philistines? (See Exodus 14:21–31; 1 Samuel 14.) Do you remember what happened to all the nations that laid their hands upon Israel while they were keeping the Covenant? “Touch not mine anointed” (1 Chronicles 16:22).

He will take care of us as He took care of them. He will be our Protector and Caretaker.
