

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... WHAT THE WORD SAYS ABOUT SENSE KNOWLEDGE

[part 5 of 5]

* One of the most vivid contrasts given to us in the Old Testament is found in Jeremiah 17:5-8.

“Cursed is the man that trusteth in man, that maketh flesh his arm, whose heart departeth from Jehovah.”

Let us read it this way, “Cursed is the man that trusteth in Sense Knowledge and maketh Sense Knowledge his strength, whose heart has departed from Jehovah.”

There you have the contrast.

One leads us invariably away from God to trust in what man has done, and the other leads us to trust in the Lord.

7th verse, “Blessed is the man that trusteth in Jehovah, whose trust Jehovah is.”

Read these verses carefully and note the contrast of Sense Knowledge faith and Revelation faith.

Sense Knowledge faith is in what man is, and can do, and has done.

Revelation faith is in the Word of God, “That liveth and abideth.”
