

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... RIGHT AND WRONG CONFESSIONS

[part 1 of 9]

* FEW Christians have recognized the place that confession holds in the scheme of things. Whenever the word "confession" is used, we instinctively think of confessing sin, weakness, and failure.

That is the negative side of this question. Christianity is called "the Great Confession." Confessing is affirming something that we believe. It is testifying of something that we know. It is witnessing for a truth that we have embraced.

Confession holds a very large place in Christianity. Jesus planned that this great Life and Love should be given to the world through testimony, that is, through the confession of our lips. Testifiers and witnesses and confessors have been the great leaders in the revolutionary Life that Jesus gave to the world.
