

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... Joshua 1:8 NASB

[part 4 of 7]

* Here are a few good confessions:

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want” (Psalm 23:1).

You say this in the face of the fact that want has been your master. A new Master has taken over the kingdom, and you whisper it softly at first, “The Lord is my shepherd.” Then you say it a little stronger; you keep repeating it until it dominates you.

When this becomes true in your life, you will never say again, “I want,” or “I need,” but you will say, “I have.”

“He that believeth...hath” (John 6:47). Believing is having.

Here you whisper, “My Father is greater than all.” What a confession that is! My Father is greater than want, greater than disease, greater than weakness, greater than any enemy that can rise against me.

Then you say with deliberate confidence, “The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” (Psalm 27:1).

God is my strength. How much strength do I have? God is the measure of it.
