

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... Joshua 1:8 NASB

February 14th

The Two Confessions

[part 2 of 2]

* We confess His Lordship, and we declare before the world that He is our Shepherd and that we do not want. We confess that He makes us to lie down in green pastures and that He leads us beside the waters of stillness. We confess that He has restored our souls to a sweet, wonderful fellowship with Him. We confess that He has made us new creations, that old things have passed away and behold all things have become new, and that we have become the righteousness of God in Christ. We confess fearlessly before the world our utter oneness and union with Him.

We declare that He is the Vine and we are the branches; that the branches and the Vine are one. We declare that we are partakers of the divine nature that dwelt in Him as He walked in Galilee.

These are our confessions.

We have come to know that Satan is defeated, that demons are subject to the name of Jesus on our lips, that disease cannot exist in the presence of the living Christ in us.

Now we dare to act on what we know the Word teaches. We dare to take our place and confess before the world that what the Word says about us is true.

We are done with the confession of failure, of weakness, of inability, because God has become our ability; God has become our sufficiency, and He has made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant.

We confess, that He has taken us out of the old realm where failure reigned, into the new realm of victory, joy, and peace.

As we make our confession and act on the Word, our faith grows and our redemption becomes a reality.