

MEDITATIONS ON THE TRUE CHRISTIAN LIFE

...."This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart from [always be in] your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful [take heed] to do according to all that is written in it; for THEN you will make your way prosperous, and THEN you will have success".... Joshua 1:8 NASB

* The one who loves flies, runs, and is glad; they are free and not bound. They give all for all, and have all in all, because they rest in One who is supreme above all things, from whom every good thing flows and goes forth. It looks not to gifts, but turns to the Giver, above all good things. Love often knows no measure; love "feels" no burden, takes no thought of labours; it strikes for more than it can do; it makes no plea about impossibility, because it thinks all things are open and possible to it. It is strong, therefore, for everything, and completes and brings to accomplishment many things, in which the one who does not love, fails and falls.

...."Love bears up under anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to the best of every person, its hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and it endures everything [without weakening]. Love never fails [never fades out or becomes obsolete or comes to an end]".... 1 Corinthians 13:7-8 The Amplified Translation
